Percentage of Financial Support

Youthprise's public support percentage for tax years ending 6/30/2012, 6/30/13, 12/31/13, 12/31/14, and 12/31/15 was 22%.

Sources of Support

Youthprise was created with seed funding from a private foundation and we have been working to diversify our funding base. In our first six years, we have implemented a robust development plan to bring in new public and private sector donors. Our development plan to diversify our public support includes three strategies:

1. Our first strategy is what we refer to as "leveraging," which allows us advance our mission. Through leveraging, we secure new resources from public sources by using our existing funding as an incentive for donors to give to Youthprise under the agreement that Youthprise matches these funds and re-grants out to other entities. Over the past two years, we have secured $557,130 in public sector funding through this strategy by partnering with federal, state and county governments.

2. A second development strategy is individual giving that focuses on building a strong development committee on our board, increasing board engagement in fundraising, increasing volunteer opportunities with Youthprise, and implementing a peer to peer fundraising campaign.

3. Third, we solicit major contributions from public and private grantmaking institutions for specific grantmaking and programmatic initiatives.

Current sources of public support include governments, private foundations and public charities, and individual donations. Youthprise made great strides in diversifying its public support through the awarding of a federal Social Innovation Fund grant in 2015, which provides $1 million per year over 3 years (with an option to extend to 5 years). In the first two years, The McKnight Foundation provided more than 87% of our funds. That percentage in 2015 is now less than 63%.

Representative governing body

The Youthprise board of directors includes a broad cross section of members with experience in corporate, nonprofit and public institutions. Directors include a vice president at an industry-leading member-owned cooperative, an investment advisor, a nonprofit manager, clergy, youth representatives, and university leaders.

Availability of Public Facilities or Services

Youthprise is primarily a grantmaking organization. However, the public is invited to participate in Youthprise activities through a number of mechanisms. We host public events, like Black History Month celebrations and Youthprise Summits. In recent years, an average of 400 people have attended these events. In addition, we sponsor events hosted by our partners and engage with community members, civic leaders, and public officials in a variety of venues. For example, we partnered with a group of concerned citizens referred to as Everybody's In in 2014 and 2015 to bring together teachers, lay people, clergy, and youth-serving professionals to strategize how to engage the entire community in educating and developing youth. In order to ensure that our grantmaking serves a broad cross-section of the community, requests for proposals and requests for partnerships are distributed widely. We coordinate with the Minnesota Department of Education to conduct our Nutrition Program. The Nutrition Program is offered at a number of sites, including at public sites such as libraries, public housing sites, and recreation centers, and provides meals and snacks to youth in those public venues. In addition, Youthprise has grants or contracts from the following public entities to conduct activities that are viewed as benefitting the public: Ramsey County, Hennepin County, Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development, Minnesota Department of Public Safety, Minnesota Department of Education, and Minneapolis Health Department. The Minnesota Legislature passed a bill in May 2016 that has been signed into law by the Governor to provide a new $1 million grant to Youthprise through the Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development.

Schedule A, Part II

Youthprise had a short period of 7/1/13 - 12/31/13 due to a change in year end. Amounts reported in the 2012 column reflect the short period.
